CuraScript SD Carries Over 800 Hematology & Oncology Products

01 | Recognizing Hematology Needs

New reimbursement realities have noticeably changed the landscape for community-based physicians, including Hematologists. As a result, practice efficiency has become increasingly important and CuraScript SD understands this. We know the success of your practice depends upon eliminating waste and reducing your operating costs.

Our Total Account Management approach to serving our Hematology physicians ensures maximum savings. From revenue cycle management to inventory controls, CuraScript SD offers alternatives to minimize inventory and maximize cash flow.

02 | Competitive Advantage

The Hematology practice of today requires attention to detail while maintaining patient confidence. Patient care is of the utmost importance and physicians need reliable and accurate support for their practice. CuraScript SD has a specialized Hematology team that reviews market needs and can advise physicians on new products that are beneficial to their practice.

02 | Nationwide Service & Distribution

Hematology products are often time-sensitive deliveries and it is important that these products arrive on time and in exceptional condition. All packages are properly prepared and shipped through CuraScript SD's extensive pick-pack-and-ship process. We have the capability to provide expedited next-day shipping on many products. With access to tracking information and detailed order records customers are able to monitor the status of their orders.

03 | Dedicated Account Managers

As a CuraScript SD customer, your dedicated Hematology Account Manager will work closely with you to recognize trends and select the portfolio of services and products that best meet the unique needs of your practice. Building strong relationships with our customers is important and our team is available to support the hematology community.
