

Providing Revenue and Cash-Flow Solutions

Revenue Cycle Management

CuraScript SD understands the importance of value-added savings to our customers. As physicians navigate constantly shifting reimbursement realities, they need a partner who recognizes this, and CuraScript SD provides the insight and support imperative to maximizing efficiency and profitability, with the understanding that the bottom line is key to any successful business.

Dedicated Account Manager

CuraScript SD believes in working one-on-one, assigning dedicated account managers to work closely with their customers to recognize trends and select the services and products that best meet their needs. This allows practices access to new avenues for growth. Revenue cycle management, contract eligibility and inventory controls are just a few of the services CuraScript SD offers that help facilitate practice success. Personal, dedicated Account Managers work side by side with customers to recognize trends within their practice and curate an extensive portfolio of services and products that best meet the unique needs of each practice.

CuraScript SD Savings Study

When a multi-physician Autoimmune practice contacted CuraScript SD for their best price on a popular TNF inhibitor, CuraScript SD reviewed the drug utilization data and discovered that the practice was eligible for a revenue management program. Through this revenue cycle management program, the practice could save over $23,000 annually on this one drug alone. This is just one example of how our one-on-one approach helps to serve our customers better.
